

University of Alabama $800 Scholarship Application

Please follow the following format and copy and paste questions into a separate document to answer and submit as PDF to mayaboone@berkeley.edu and loshunintl@gmail.com along with a current version of your resume. Applications will be accepted until April 1st and recipients notified by April 5th. Strong consideration will be given to format, thoughtfulness, authenticity, and professionalism.

Heading and Scholarship Application Format

Name

Email Address

Phone Number

University in Attendance

UA-RFI Scholarship Application

1. Session and Dates of Desired Travel: Ex) Session Three June 17-27th
2. Please indicate if you receive federal aid for college(Yes/No):
3. Do you identify as a low-income student or come from a low-income family? (Yes/No):
4. Do you identify as a racial or ethnic minority? You may choose to elaborate if you wish. (Yes/No):
5. Do you identify as a gendered or LGBTQ+ minority? You may choose to elaborate if you wish. (Yes/No):
6. Have you ever traveled outside the U.S. before or engaged in local or abroad programs similar to ours? Please elaborate on relevant experiences.

7. What are your current means for funding yourself for this program? What are the extents of contributions you can obtain from family, personally, or from other funding resources? Where else have you looked for funding and/or what other grants have you already applied to or are intending to apply to? Additionally, what percentage of the trip would you need funded ($1,450 + $700-1100 flight) to make the program possible for you? If you don't receive this scholarship, do you still intend to consider the program?

8. Please share with us any academic or non-academic programs, networks, clubs, affiliations you are involved with and what kinds of knowledge/skills you wish to bring to the team in Ecuador (Engineers without Borders, Sustainability initiatives, Business and Finance clubs, experience on construction sites, nonprofit development work etc.)

9. In 250 words or less, please briefly describe your academic, career, and personal goals in relationship to sustainability and environmentally and socially regenerative work.

10. What kinds of knowledge/skills are you hoping to gain from this experience? (Technical construction skills, natural resource management, cross-cultural collaboration, relief aid politics, sustainable development ideologies, design principles, enterprise models etc.)

11. RFI is founded by a network of pioneers in the social and environmental enterprise world seeking to implement regenerative practices throughout multiple fields and disciplines. What do you hope to do with what you learn from one of our courses and how will it help you achieve the goals you outlined above?